I give Tzedakah every day.
I kiss the Mezuzah & I'm on my way.
Kosher food it's gonna be.
I feed my pets 'cause they need me.

Hey, hey! I'm a Mitzvah Machine!
Hey, hey! I do the 613!

I make a Brocha (blessing) when I eat.
Speaking kindly can't be beat.
On Friday night, Shabbat candles I light
Whoa! 'cause of me, the whole world is bright!

Hey, hey! I'm a Mitzvah Machine!
Hey, hey! I do the 613!

A Kippah & Tzitzit I proudly wear.
I sing Tefillot (prayers) to Hashem so dear.
I learn Torah, there's so much to know.
I do the mitzvot 'cause I love Hashem so!

Hey, hey! I'm proud to be a Jewish kid
Hey, hey! I'm a Hebrew School kid!

MITZVAH
is a commandment.
It's something that Hashem tells us to do.

Hashem gave us
613 mitzvot.

Each mitzvah we do,
fills Hashem with happiness.

Some Mitzvot to know:

Celebrate Shabbat and Jewish holidays – we light candles, say the kiddush prayer, eat challah and go to synagogue – remembering how Hashem helps us.

Say a bracha (blessing) before and after we eat, thanking Hashem for the gift of food.

Be careful with how we speak and use words of kindness and respect.

Give tzedakah (charity) and help people in need.

Sing tefillot (prayers), and talk to Hashem.

Eat kosher food, giving our bodies energy the way Hashem knows is best.

Care for animals, and for the world we live in.

Put a mezuzah scroll on our doorpost, reminding us that Hashem is everywhere.

Wear tzitzit & kippah and proudly show we are Jewish.
